Kubota North America Corporation (“Kubota”) identified and addressed an incident involving unauthorized access to certain network systems between March 16, 2026 and April 20, 2026. When Kubota learned of the incident, it immediately took steps to secure its network. On April 30, 2026, Kubota discovered that files maintained by its human resources team were accessed as part of this incident. Kubota carefully reviewed these files, and on June 16, 2026, determined that one or more files may have contained the personal information of 14 Nebraska residents.

Given the unique nature of employee records, the information in the files varied by individual. Depending on the employee’s role and benefits elections, the files may have included their name in combination with one or more of the following: Social Security number, date of birth, taxpayer identification number, driver’s license or other government-issued identification number, financial account information for direct deposit, payment card information for corporate cards, and, if enrolled in Kubota’s benefits plan, enrollment and limited claims information. For dependents of employees, the files may have included their name in combination with one or more of the following: Social Security number, date of birth, and, if enrolled in Kubota’s benefits plan, enrollment and limited claims information.

On June 30, 2026, Kubota mailed notification letters via U.S. First-Class mail to the Nebraska residents whose information was involved. A copy of the notification template is enclosed. Kubota is offering one year of complimentary credit monitoring, fraud consultation, and identity theft restoration services through Kroll. Kubota has also established a dedicated, toll-free call center to answer any questions notified individuals may have.

To help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, Kubota has implemented additional measures to enhance the security of its computer network.

<<b2b_text_1 (Notice of Data Breach)>>

Dear <<First_name>> <<Last_name>>:

Kubota North America Corporation is committed to protecting the privacy and security of the information we maintain. We are writing to inform you of a data security incident that may have involved some of your information. This notice explains the incident, our investigation, and measures we have taken in response.

What Happened?

We recently identified and addressed an incident involving unauthorized access to certain network systems between March 16, 2026, and April 20, 2026. When we learned of the incident, we immediately took steps to secure our network. On April 30, 2026, we discovered that files maintained by our human resources team were accessed as part of this incident. We carefully reviewed these files, and on June 16, 2026, we determined that one or more file(s) may have contained your information.

What Information Was Involved?

Given the unique nature of employee records, the information in the files varied by individual. Depending on your role and benefits elections, it may have included your name and one or more of the following: Social Security number, date of birth, taxpayer identification number, driver's license or other government-issued identification number, financial account information for direct deposit, payment card information for corporate cards, and, for individuals enrolled in our benefits plan, enrollment and limited claims information.

What We Are Doing.

To help prevent a similar incident from occurring in the future, we implemented additional measures to enhance the security of our computer network. For added peace of mind, we have also arranged for you to receive a free <<ServiceTerminMonths>> month membership of identity monitoring services through Kroll. This product includes credit monitoring, fraud consultation, and identity theft restoration, and enrolling in these services will not hurt your credit score.

What You Can Do.

We apologize for any concern this incident may have caused you. It is always advisable to remain vigilant by reviewing your financial account statements and statements related to your healthcare for any unauthorized activity or for services you did not receive. If you see charges or activity that you did not authorize, please contact the relevant financial institution, healthcare entity, or health insurer immediately. In addition, for instructions on how to activate your complimentary, <<ServiceTerminMonths>> month membership, please see the pages that follow this letter.

For More Information.

If you have any questions, please call our dedicated helpline at (844) 959-7144, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Central Time, excluding certain U.S. holidays. Please have your membership number ready.

Sincerely,

Kubota North America Corporation

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR IDENTITY MONITORING SERVICES

You have been provided with access to the following services from Kroll:

Triple Bureau Credit Monitoring

You will receive alerts when there are changes to your credit data at any of the three national credit bureaus—for instance, when a new line of credit is applied for in your name. If you do not recognize the activity, you'll have the option to call a Kroll fraud specialist, who will be able to help you determine if it is an indicator of identity theft. To receive credit services, you must be over the age of 18 and have established credit in the U.S., have a Social Security number in your name, and have a U.S. residential address associated with your credit file.

Fraud Consultation

You have unlimited access to consultation with a Kroll fraud specialist. Support includes showing you the most effective ways to protect your identity, explaining your rights and protections under the law, assistance with fraud alerts, and interpreting how personal information is accessed and used, including investigating suspicious activity that could be tied to an identity theft event.

Identity Theft Restoration

If you become a victim of identity theft, an experienced Kroll licensed investigator will work on your behalf to resolve related issues. You will have access to a dedicated investigator who understands your issues and can do most of the work for you. Your investigator will be able to dig deep to uncover the scope of the identity theft, and then work to resolve it.

ADDITIONAL STEPS YOU CAN TAKE

We remind you it is always advisable to be vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports for any unauthorized activity. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting companies is as follows:

- Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-888-378-4329
- Experian, PO Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com, 1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-833-799-5355

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.identitytheft.gov

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active-Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.
