Dear Attorney General Hilgers,

We represent Sellers Publishing, Inc. (“Sellers Publishing”) with respect to a data security incident involving the potential exposure of certain personal information described in more detail below. Sellers Publishing is committed to answering any questions you may have about the data security incident, the response, and steps taken to prevent a similar incident in the future.

1. Nature of security incident.

On November 4, 2025, Sellers Publishing was alerted to unauthorized activity on its network. In response, Sellers Publishing took steps to secure its systems, initiated an investigation, and engaged a third-party forensic firm to assist. The incident was determined to be ransomware. On or about January 23, 2026, the investigation determined the unauthorized activity may have included access to some files containing the personal information of residents of your state.

2. Number of residents affected.

One (1) Nebraska resident was notified of the incident. The potentially impacted individual was notified on March 10, 2026 (a copy of the form notification letter is enclosed as Exhibit A).

3. Steps taken in response to the incident.

Upon discovering the incident, Sellers Publishing immediately implemented additional security measures to help secure its systems and prevent future unauthorized access. Additionally, Sellers Publishing is offering identity theft protection services through TransUnion, a company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services.

4. Contact information.

Re: NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY INCIDENT

Dear [REDACTED],

Sellers Publishing, Inc. (“Sellers”) is writing to let you know about a data security incident that may have impacted some of your information. We take the privacy and security of your information seriously and sincerely apologize for any concern or inconvenience this may cause you. Sellers may have had your data if you are, or were, employed by Sellers, or worked as a contractor for Sellers. This letter contains information about steps you can take to protect your information, and resources we are making available to help you.

What Happened?

On November 4, 2025, Sellers discovered unusual activity on our system. We immediately implemented our incident response protocols, took steps to isolate our server from the network, and engaged independent computer forensic experts to assist with an investigation. On December 3, 2025, the investigation concluded that an unauthorized user potentially accessed certain systems of Sellers. A review of these potentially impacted systems revealed that personal information belonging to you was present on these systems. At this time, we have no indication that your personal information has been misused. However, we are notifying you of the incident out of an abundance of caution.

What Information Was Involved?

It appears that your name and Social Security number may have been affected.

What We Are Doing:

We have taken steps to prevent this kind of event in the future, such as changing user passwords and deploying endpoint monitoring and detection tools throughout our IT environment. In addition, we are offering you with access to Single Bureau Credit Monitoring/Single Bureau Credit Report/Single Bureau Credit Score services at no charge. These services provide you with alerts for 12 months from the date of enrollment when changes occur to your credit file. This notification is sent to you the same day that the change or update takes place with the bureau. Finally, we are providing you with proactive fraud assistance to help with any questions that you might have or in event that you become a victim of fraud. These services will be provided by Cyberscout, a TransUnion company specializing in fraud assistance and remediation services. With this protection, Cyberscout will help you resolve issues if your identity is compromised.

How You Can Enroll:

To enroll in Credit Monitoring services at no charge, please log on to <https://bfs.cyberscout.com/activate> and follow the instructions provided. When prompted please provide the following unique code to receive services: [REDACTED] To receive the monitoring services described above, you must enroll within 90 days from the date of this letter. The enrollment requires an internet connection and e-mail account and may not be available to minors under the age of 18 years of age. Please note that when signing up for monitoring services, you may be asked to verify personal information for your own protection to confirm your identity.

This letter also provides other precautionary measures you can take to protect your information. Additionally, you should always remain vigilant in reviewing your financial account statements and credit reports for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis.

For More Information:

If you have questions, please call 1-800-405-6108, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, excluding holidays. Protecting your information is important to us, and we sincerely apologize for any concern this incident may cause you.

Sincerely,

Sellers Publishing, Inc.

Recommended Steps to help Protect your Information

1. Review your credit reports. We recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring credit reports. Under federal law, you also are entitled every 12 months to one free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting companies. To obtain a free annual credit report, go to www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. You may wish to stagger your requests so that you receive a free report by one of the three credit bureaus every four months.

You should also know that you have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity fraud. Please note that in order to file a crime report or incident report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some kind of proof that you have been a victim. A police report is often required to dispute fraudulent items. You can report suspected incidents of identity theft to local law enforcement or to the Attorney General.

2. Place Fraud Alerts with the three credit bureaus. If you choose to place a fraud alert, we recommend you do this after activating your credit monitoring. You can place a fraud alert at one of the three major credit bureaus by phone and also via Experian's or Equifax's website. A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. The contact information for all three bureaus is as follows:

Credit Bureaus

Equifax Fraud Reporting
1-866-349-5191
P.O. Box 105069
Atlanta, GA 30348-5069
www.equifax.com

Experian Fraud Reporting
1-888-397-3742
P.O. Box 9554
Allen, TX 75013
www.experian.com

TransUnion Fraud Reporting
1-800-680-7289
P.O. Box 2000
Chester, PA 19022-2000
www.transunion.com

It is necessary to contact only ONE of these bureaus and use only ONE of these methods. As soon as one of the three bureaus confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place alerts on their records as well.

You will receive confirmation letters in the mail and will then be able to order all three credit reports, free of charge, for your review. An initial fraud alert will last for one year.

Please Note: No one is allowed to place a fraud alert on your credit report except you.

3. Security Freeze. By placing a security freeze, someone who fraudulently acquires your personal identifying information will not be able to use that information to open new accounts or borrow money in your name. You will need to contact the three national credit reporting bureaus listed above to place the freeze. Keep in mind that when you place the freeze, you will not be able to borrow money, obtain instant credit, or get a new credit card until you temporarily lift or permanently remove the freeze. There is no cost to freeze or unfreeze your credit files.
4. You can obtain additional information about the steps you can take to avoid identity theft from the following agencies. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them.

California Residents: Visit the California Office of Privacy Protection (www.oag.ca.gov/privacy) for additional information on protection against identity theft. Office of the Attorney General of California, 1300 I Street, Sacramento, CA 95814, Telephone: 1-800-952-5225.
