Re: Notice of Data Privacy Incident

Dear <<First_Name>> <<Last_Name>>:

PCE Constructors, Inc. (“PCE”) takes the security and privacy of our employees’ information seriously. As part of that commitment, we write to notify you of a data privacy incident potentially involving your personal information. This notice explains the incident, outlines the steps PCE has taken to address it, and provides guidance on steps you can take to help protect your personal information as well as the opportunity to enroll in complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

What Happened: On June 16, 2025, we became aware of a disruption to our network. We took immediate action to secure our systems, and retained outside cyber incident professionals to investigate the incident. As part of that investigation, we learned that certain data was accessed and acquired from our network by an unauthorized actor sometime between June 12, 2025 – June 17, 2025. We performed a detailed review of the contents of the potentially involved data to determine to whom that information relates. After a thorough investigation, on July 7, 2025, we confirmed that certain of your personal information was contained in the data set.

What Information Was Involved: Our review of the files determined that your first and last name, in combination with your Social Security number, and driver’s license number or other form of government issued identification number, was present within the data set. Please note that we have no indication of fraud or identity theft occurring as a result of this incident.

What We Are Doing: We take this incident and the security of information in our care very seriously. Upon learning of the incident, we took immediate steps to address it, including securing our systems and taking part of our network offline. We retained cybersecurity professionals to assist and notify federal law enforcement. We also offer <<ServiceTerminMonths>> months of complimentary identity monitoring services through Kroll. Instructions for how to enroll in these services are enclosed.

What You Can Do: As a general matter, it is best practice to remain vigilant for incidents of identity theft and fraud, from any source, by reviewing your credit reports and account statements for suspicious activity and errors. If you discover any suspicious or unusual activity on your accounts, promptly contact your financial institution or service provider. You may also file a report with law enforcement, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission. Please refer to the enclosed “Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Information” for additional resources you may take advantage of to protect against fraud and identity theft, should you find it appropriate to do so.

For More Information: Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact our assistance line (866) 559-4204, Monday through Friday, Central Time, excluding major U.S. holidays. Please know that the security of information is of the utmost importance to us. Monitor Your Accounts and Credit Reports:

As a general matter, it is best practice to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your credit reports/account statements and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors.

Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. You also may complete an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You can access the printable request form at <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/manualRequestForm.action> or fill out the online form at <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/requestReport/requestForm.action>. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

Fraud Alerts:

You have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

Credit Freeze:

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit.

Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you should provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver’s license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
