Dear Attorney General Hilgers:

We represent the National Center for Construction Education and Research (“NCCER”) and write in accordance with NE ST § 87-803, to report a security incident resulting in the unauthorized acquisition of personal information concerning twenty-four (24) residents of Nebraska. This notice shall not be construed as an admission of jurisdiction or liability, nor does NCCER waive its rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Nebraska law or personal jurisdiction.

Upon discovery, NCCER took immediate action to investigate the incident, which included taking its systems offline and engaging our law firm. We engaged cybersecurity forensics firm to investigate the incident, assist with the remediation efforts, and for the provision of rendering our legal advice. It was later determined that files were exfiltrated from NCCER’s network. The group responsible for the incident is Quilin.

On or around June 20, 2025, NCCER engaged a data review team to understand the potential data involved. Data mining review concluded at the end of March 2026. Following the data mining engagement, supplemental review was required to identify and classify data

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT YOUR INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts and Credit Reports: It is good practice to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your credit reports/account statements and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity and to detect errors.

You May Obtain a Free Credit Report: Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit <https://annualcreditreport.com>, call toll-free at 1-877-322-8228, complete the Annual Credit Report Request Form on the Federal Trade Commission's (FTC) website at <https://ftc.gov> and mail it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348-5281. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact one of the credit reporting bureaus.

Fraud Alert Services: You have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report at no cost, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified below.

Credit Freeze Instructions: As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you should provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
