We represent EducationDynamics, LLC ("EducationDynamics") located at 15200 Santa Fe Trail Drive, Suite 200, Lenexa, KS 66219, and are writing to notify your office of an event that may affect the security of certain personal information relating to approximately one (1) Nebraska resident. This notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, EducationDynamics does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Nebraska law, the applicability of the Nebraska data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On August 15, 2025, EducationDynamics became aware of suspicious activity related to an employee's email account. EducationDynamics contained the email account and initiated an investigation. The investigation determined that an unauthorized third-party accessed the email account between April 15, 2025 and August 20, 2025. A diligent review of all documents potentially involved was conducted to identify whether any emails contained personal information, and if so, what personal information they contained and to whom that information relates. The review, which was completed on October 30, 2025, identified that the affected documents contained certain individuals' personal information.

The personal information present in the documents involved includes name and the following: Social Security number.

Notice to Nebraska Resident

On November 25, 2025, EducationDynamics began providing written notice of this event to approximately one (1) Nebraska resident. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, EducationDynamics contained the email account, conducted an investigation as described above, and is notifying individuals whose personal information was identified in the documents involved in the event. EducationDynamics is providing access to credit monitoring services, through CyberScout, a TransUnion company, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this event, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, EducationDynamics is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. EducationDynamics is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

EducationDynamics is providing written notice of this event to relevant state regulators, as necessary.

Dear :

EducationDynamics, LLC ("EducationDynamics") is writing to inform you of a data event that involves your personal information. This letter provides you with information about what happened, our response, and steps you can take to help protect your personal information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On August 15, 2025, EducationDynamics became aware of suspicious activity related to an employee's email account. We contained the email account and initiated an investigation. The investigation determined that an unauthorized third-party accessed the email account between April 15, 2025 and August 20, 2025. A diligent review of all documents potentially involved was conducted to identify whether any emails contained personal information, and if so, what personal information they contained and to whom that information relates. The review, which was completed on October 30, 2025, identified that the affected documents contained your personal information.

What Information Was Involved? The personal information present in the affected documents includes your name and the following:

What We Are Doing. Upon learning of this event, we contained the email account, conducted an investigation as described above, and are notifying individuals whose personal information was identified in the documents involved in the event. Additionally, we are notifying applicable state regulators. We are reviewing our policies and procedures to help reduce risk of a similar event occurring in the future.

As an added precaution, we are providing you with access to twelve (12) months of credit monitoring at no charge through Cyberscout, a TransUnion company. Instructions regarding how to enroll can be found within the enclosed Steps You Can Take To Help Protect Personal Information. Please note that you must complete the enrollment process yourself as we are not permitted to enroll you in these services.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant in protecting against identity theft and fraud, including by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your credit reports for suspicious activity. Information about how to obtain a free credit report, credit freeze, and other guidance is provided in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information, which we encourage you to review.

For More Information. If you have questions or need assistance in enrolling in the credit monitoring services, please call 1-800-405-6108 between the hours of 8:00 am to 8:00 pm, Monday through Friday, excluding major U.S. holidays. Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended "fraud alert" on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a "credit freeze" on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer's express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer's name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For Maryland residents, the Maryland Attorney General may be contacted at: 200 St. Paul Place, 16th Floor, Baltimore, MD 21202; 1-410-576-6300 or 1-888-743-0023; and https://www.marylandattorneygeneral.gov/.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

For New York residents, the New York Attorney General may be contacted at: Office of the Attorney General, The Capitol, Albany, NY 12224-0341; 1-800-771-7755; or https://ag.ny.gov.

For North Carolina residents, the North Carolina Attorney General may be contacted at: 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-9001; 1-877-566-7226 or 1-919-716-6000; and www.ncdoj.gov.
