

EXHIBIT 1

The investigation into this matter is ongoing, and this notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter LLP (“MDMC”) does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Nebraska law, the applicability of the Nebraska data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On April 3, 2025, MDMC became aware of suspicious activity within its network environment. MDMC promptly took steps to secure its systems and initiated an investigation into the nature and scope of the activity. The investigation determined that certain files on MDMC systems were accessed or acquired without authorization from March 28, 2025 to April 1, 2025. In response MDMC undertook a comprehensive review of the affected files to determine what information was present and to whom it relates. On December 4, 2025, MDMC identified that personal information relating to certain individuals was present in the affected files.

The personal information in the affected files includes name and Social Security number.

Notice to Nebraska Residents

On December 19, 2025, MDMC began providing written notice of this incident to approximately three (3) Nebraska residents. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, MDMC moved quickly to respond and investigate the suspicious activity, secure its network, and notify potentially affected individuals. Further, MDMC notified federal law enforcement regarding the event. As part of its ongoing commitment to information security, MDMC is reviewing its policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of similar future events. MDMC is providing access to credit monitoring services for twelve (12) months, through Epiq, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, MDMC is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. MDMC is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one’s credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

MDMC is providing written notice of this incident to relevant state regulators, as necessary, and to the three major credit reporting agencies, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion.

Notice of <<Security Incident/Data Breach>>

Dear <<Full Name>>:

McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter LLP (“MDMC”) is writing to notify you of a recent incident that may involve some of your information. This letter provides information about the incident, steps we are taking in response, and resources available to help you better protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On April 3, 2025, MDMC became aware that it was the target of a cyberattack. Following a comprehensive investigation and review of the affected files, which was completed on December 4, 2025, MDMC has now learned that data containing your personal information was accessed or acquired by unauthorized actors in the cyberattack from March 28, 2025 to April 1, 2025.

What Information Was Involved? The information present in the files that were potentially impacted by this incident may have included your name and the following: <<data elements>>.

What We Are Doing. We take this event and the security of information in our care seriously. We moved quickly to respond and investigate the suspicious activity, secure our network, and notify potentially affected individuals. As part of our ongoing commitment to information security, we are reviewing our policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of similar future events. We notified federal law enforcement and will be notifying relevant regulators, as required.

As an added precaution, we are also providing you with <<12/24>> months of complimentary access to credit monitoring services through Epiq, as well as guidance on how to better protect your information, should you feel it is appropriate to do so. Although we are covering the cost of these services, due to privacy restrictions, you will need to complete the activation process yourself.

What You Can Do. You can find out more about how to safeguard your information in the enclosed Steps You Can Take To Protect Personal Information. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. We also encourage you to enroll in the complementary credit monitoring services. Enrollment instructions are enclosed with this letter.

For More Information. If you have additional questions, please contact us at 1-855-403-1820, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time, except major U.S. holidays. You may also write to us at 1300 Mt Kemble Ave, Morristown, NJ 07962-2075.

Sincerely,

McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter LLP

The description herein is a summary and intended for informational purposes only and does not include all terms, conditions, and exclusions of the policies described. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect their personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.
